SB1275/HB409 CRIMINAL LAW: Civil or criminal immunity for person who uses force in self-defense.

Sponsors: Sen. Pody, Mark , Rep. Griffey, Bruce

Summary: Confers criminal and civil immunity upon a person who uses or threatens to use force in self-defense, defense of another, or defense from a person committing a criminal offense, unless the person against whom the force is used is a law enforcement officer acting in the performance of the officer's official duties and has identified himself or herself as a law enforcement officer.

Amendment Summary: House Constitutional Protections & Sentencing Subcommittee amendment 1 (005075) modifies the circumstances under which civil immunity will not apply to a use of force. Under this bill, civil immunity will not apply if the person against whom force was used is a law enforcement officer who was acting in the performance of the officer's official duties and identified himself or herself as a law enforcement officer; or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer, and modifies the circumstances under which civil immunity applies in cases of justified use or threat to use force, the suit must be dismissed without prejudice for failure to state a claim unless the person against whom the claim has been made has been convicted of a crime involving the unlawful use of force that resulted from the same events as the civil action. This bill specifies that a suit may be brought against a person convicted of a crime involving the unlawful use of force and arising from the same incident as the civil action within one year of the conviction for the use of unlawful force resulting from the same events. Sent to full committee.
